Overview of Kathmandu Valley Sightseeing

The Kathmandu Valley is packed with astonishing cultural landmarks, offering an extraordinary sightseeing experience across antique temples, sacred shrines, and historic stupas, many of which are proudly enlisted as UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Arranged by Nepal Kailash Trekking, this comprehensive day tour provides an effortless and immersive journey through the heart of the Himalayan Kingdom.

Major Highlights and World Heritage Sites

During your exploration of the valley, you will visit several world-renowned heritage locations:

- Kathmandu Durbar Square: Discover ancient courtyards and historic shrines, including the majestic Hanuman Dhoka Palace and the Kumari Ghar (residence of the Living Goddess).
- Swayambhunath Stupa: Perched atop a prominent hillock, this revered monkey temple offers panoramic views of the entire Kathmandu Valley and is jointly worshipped by Buddhists and Hindus alike.
- Pashupatinath and Boudhanath: Experience spiritual serenity at Pashupatinath, one of the holiest Hindu temples in Nepal, followed by a visit to Boudhanath, the largest Buddhist stupa in the world.
- Patan and Bhaktapur Durbar Squares: Wander through Patan Durbar Square to admire the intricate artistry of Krishna Mandir, Mahabouddha, Hiranya Varna Mahaa Vihar, and Kumbeshwor Temple, and explore Bhaktapur's magnificent 55-window palace and Golden Gate.
- Changu Narayan Temple: Travel through traditional farmlands and rustic villages to visit Changu Narayan, recognized as the oldest holy shrine in the Kathmandu Valley.
