Overview of the Muktinath Tour and Trek

The Muktinath Tour, organized by Nepal Kailash Trekking, offers a rewarding journey whether you prefer a comfortable tour or an adventurous trek. Located at an altitude of 3,800m in the north-central region of Nepal, Muktinath is a revered sacred pilgrimage destination for both Hindu and Buddhist followers. Surrounded by vast arid landscapes and stunning views of the Annapurna Himalayan peaks, the site is celebrated as one of the 108 sacred Vaishnava shrines.

Key Spiritual and Natural Highlights

The region holds profound religious and geographical significance:

- Significance of the Name: Muktinath translates to "God of Salvation" and lies within the rain-shadow area of the giant Himalayas. It is considered one of eight holy sacred self-manifested shrines alongside Srirangam, Sri Mushnam, Tirupati, Thottadri, Pushkaram, Naimisaranyam, and Badrinath.
- 108 Waterspouts and Jwala Mai Temple: The temple grounds feature 108 stone waterspouts pouring sacred water, alongside the nearby Jwala Mai Temple which houses an eternal flame fueled by natural gas.
- Kali Gandaki Valley & Saligram: Traveling via Jomsom or Beni allows visitors to enjoy natural hot springs at Tatopani and search for sacred 'Saligram' ammonite fossils along the shores of the Kali Gandaki River, revered as manifestations of Lord Vishnu.
