A Classic Short & Easy Himalayan Trail

The Royal Trek is one of the most accessible and scenic short treks in the Annapurna foothills near Pokhara. This iconic route earned its name after HRH Prince Charles (now King Charles III) explored this trail in 1980. Offering dramatic, close-up panoramas of the Annapurna range, it is an ideal choice for beginners, families, or travelers with limited time looking for a gentle walking experience.

Starting just a 30-minute drive from Pokhara, the trail winds through lush countryside, traditional ethnic settlements, and scenic ridges away from the busier trekking crowds.

Highlights of the Royal Trek

- Historic Royal Connection: Walk along the same picturesque footpaths made famous by the Prince of Wales' visit in 1980.
- Stunning Mountain Vistas: Enjoy sweeping views of the Annapurna range, Machhapuchhre (Fishtail), and Langtang Himal.
- Authentic Cultural Experience: Pass through traditional Gurung and Magar villages, including views across the valley toward Sikles, one of the largest Gurung settlements.
- Lakeside Serenity: Experience the beauty of Pokhara's famous lakes—Fewa Lake, Rupa Lake, and Begnas Lake.
- Boating on Begnas Lake: Conclude your trek with a relaxing 1-hour boat ride across Begnas Lake before returning to Pokhara or Kathmandu.
